

WE ORGANISED ANOTHER FESTIVAL!

SINGAPORE TRADITIONAL FOLK FIESTA 2003 (20-22 DECEMBER 2003)

'Fiesta' committee and performers at the press conference @Malay Village

This is our third and final production for year 2003. Singapore Traditional Folk Fiesta 2003 consists of competition, talk and demonstration, a welcome dinner and a Gala Night Country performance. The event is one of Sri Wari-san's objectives to produce quality grand scale production of international standard. This Fiesta enlivened the feel and mood of reaching out to the Singapore's cosmopolitan audience. In this production, we invite more than 60 performers from Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand to present their very own traditional folk music, dance and

ISSMA from Malacca delegates, during the talk & demo at Victoria Theatre

Tg Pinang delegates show their short presentation during the talk & demo

CREATIVE DIKIR SPURA COMPETITION 20 DECEMBER 2003

6 local groups participated in this competition held at Floating Seafood Restaurant at Malay Village. This competition enhanced the awareness of Dikir Singapura that originates from the popular Dikir Barat. The event was hosted by local artiste, Suzairhe Sumari. The occasion was graced by

Photo session with Mr Zainul Abideen Rashid and head of delegates

WELCOME DINNER 20 DECEMBER 2003

Took place at Floating Seafood Restaurant at 8.00pm, Mr Zainul Abideen Rashid, the Mayor of South East CDC welcomed all local and overseas delegates. Every country presented a 10 minutes performance including Singapore's Unity in Diversity and Melentur Buloh 's Bangsawan Putri

SW performers and Mdm Som welcomed Mr Zainul Abideen Rashid

Unity in Diversity performance by Singapore's delegates at the Welcome Dinner

