

MANILA PHILIPPINES!

LAWISWIS—FIRST MANILA INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCE FESTIVAL - 3 TO 7 DEC 2003

Our arrival at Manila airport welcomed by the Festival Liason Officers

Ten countries exhibited their distinct cultures through dance with the launching of Lawiswis, the first Manila International Folk Dance Festival at the Bulwagang Antonio Villages in Manila City Hall. Participating delegates from Italy, Korea, Macao, Malaysia, Spain,

Photo session with Manila Mayor Lito Atienza during the opening of the festival

Thailand and Singapore. Sri Warisan was selected by the National Arts Council (Singapore) to represent Singapore at this prestigious festival. We performed in

Parade from Museo Pambata up to Plaza Rajah Sulayman in Malate

Token exchange appreciation between Sri Warisan and the Dir of Tourism Manila

Manila City. this festival was organized by Bayanihan, the National Dance Company of the Philippines, the Cultural Center of Philippines & the City Government of Manila. Our performance 'Malay Heritage', Zapin Telok Blangah, Roots and others were well received by

SW performers at The Women's University in the City of Manila

SW performers and Mdm Som at residence of Singapore's Ambassador in Manila, Mrs Kheng (centre in green)

