

SRI WARISAN PERFORMING ARTS SCHOOL

Sri Warisan Som Said Performing Arts Ltd School was set up to provide Arts Education in a non- formal set up. The teachers are qualified volunteers who are Sri Warisan's staff and friends who are experts in the arts. The schools' main objective is to impart the rich cultural heritage and to be able to develop grace and discipline in a person through Performing Arts activities. Students will participate in productions or general performances during the training sessions without monetary return.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Attendance

- Regular and punctual
- To produce letter for your absence
- Frequent absentees may result in re- registration

2. Conduct

- Observe good conduct
- No food and drinks in the studio

1. Schedule and classes

- No transferring of classes will be allowed
- Assignments of teachers will remain the prerogative of Sri Warisan.
- Sri Warisan may transfer, combine, split or dissolve a class at any given time.

4. School Fees

- Fees are payable on the 1st week of the beginning of each semester
- No exam fee

5. Uniform

- To be properly attired in Sri Warisan Uniform

6. Holidays

- The list of holidays will be displayed on the notice board
- No classes on public holidays.

7. Leave applications

- Students are discourage from frequent leave.

8. Public Performance/ Properties

- Students are to obtain permission before using the school's property or participate at any outside performance
- No recording, transferring of Sri Warisan music is allowed

9. General Information

- Sri Warisan will not be held responsible for any damage of individual's property or injury to any persons
- All correspondence with regards to the school may refer to the HR department

10. Change of Address

- To notify in writing to the administrator.

 Sri Warisan reserves the right to add, amend, delete, or grant a waiver on any of the above without prior notice.*