Arts Education Manager

The National Arts Council aims to provide all students with access to quality Arts Education Programmes. Endorsed by the national Arts Council, Sri Warisan's programmes aims to make the traditional performing arts more accessible and interesting to students by encouraging them to participate in art activities at a level that they are comfortable with.

Since the (NAC-AEP) inception in 1993, our artistic director and Cultural Medallion award recipient Mdm Som Said designed several dance and music programmes for the Arts Exposure, Experience and Excursion programmes which up till today have been much sought after by schools from pre-school to tertiary level. Together with performers from Dance Ensemble Singapore & Jigri Yaar Bhangra, we formed the SMEDE - Singapore Multi Ethnic Dance Ensemble.

With a team of more than 30 dedicated and passionate MOE registered instructors and performers, we aim to deliver the most conducive workshops, mentally stimulating and visually captivating performances everytime we step into your school.
